SUBJECT Admiral Inman Announces Resignation

JAMIE BRAGG: Administration sources say President Reagan will move the number three man in the CIA up a notch to replace Admiral Bobby Inman as the spy agency's Deputy Director. Inman announced his resignation last week. Sources say the President is expected to name John McMahon, a 31-year CIA veteran, to replace Inman. They say McMahon has been recommended by CIA Director William Casey and screened by the President's aides. That nomination could come as early as today.
